MEET OUR GUEST ARTISTS AND COMMUNITY PARTNERS

Olivia Arratia creates photographic prints, sculpture, and book art that responds to aspects of Hispanic culture and the regional aesthetics of her birthplace in Southern California.

Jessica Bond is a product designer by day and screen-printing artist by night. Her work interweaves storytelling, dreams, and insights gained during her military service.

Jamison LeBlanc has taught drawing, painting, and figurative art courses at the college level. He currently teaches studio art in Mesquite ISD.

Sarah Depetris is a Dallas-based artist whose practice integrates painting, installation, and sculpture. She makes multi-dimensional drawings about the almost and not-yet-made.

The PETAL Project

is a North Texas-based organization that fosters interactive, experiential, and creative learning centered on community and environmental connections.

The Welman Project is a Fort Worth-based organization that connects schools and nonprofits with the community in ways that ignite creativity, environmental activism, and social responsibility.
