What do we do?

Kimbell Teen Council's goal is to develop and promote teen programs at the Kimbell by:

- Advising, planning, and implementing events such as Kimbell Teen Hangouts
- Volunteering at Kimbell education programs and special events
- Consulting on museum initiatives and projects (Kimbell Teen Art Scope, Nuestro Kimbell, etc.)
- Working with Kimbell staff to create marketing materials (photos, videos, etc.) for promoting teen programs
- Promoting Kimbell teen programs by distributing flyers, participating in special events, and communicating with peers

What will you get out of the experience?

- Have a say in building teen programming at the Kimbell
- Gain experience in leadership, community engagement, and arts advocacy
- Learn about the Kimbell's collection through behind-the-scenes experiences
- Build relationships with a diverse group of teens from all over the DFW Metroplex
- Fulfill service learning and community service hours through volunteering

How much time do I have to commit?

- KTC members must commit to attending fourteen two-hour meetings throughout the 2024–2025 school year. Meetings are scheduled on selected Wednesday afternoons.
- KTC members also must commit to completing a minimum of eight volunteer hours for Kimbell Art Museum programs or special events throughout the school year. Most volunteer opportunities occur on Friday evenings and Saturday afternoons.

How do I get started?

- Complete and turn in the Kimbell Teen Council application by Saturday, June 15, 2024.
- Applicants moving on to the interview round will be notified by Friday, July 5, 2024.
- Make sure to attend Kimbell Teen Hangouts throughout the year!
